

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Chapter 13

The Hardest Person to Lead

But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

~ Matthew 6:33 NIV

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve other, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

~ 1 Peter 4:10 NIV

DISCUSSION POINTS

How does Jesus teach us to lead ourselves?

- Character matters. What you hide will be found out.
- Spend less time worrying about what you need, and more time trusting God, because He knows what you need.
- Be rich toward God. Put His Kingdom above your own agenda.
- Everything you have has been entrusted to you, and you'll have to answer for what you did with it.

Continued on back

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What is your greatest challenge in leading yourself well? How would the people who know you best answer this question?

Which of the four principles from Luke 12 speaks to you the most directly? What are you doing to grow in this area?

Share a hidden character flaw you think you have. How can you grow in this area?

What are the benefits of putting God's Kingdom first? Share some examples of how to practically do this.

Has anyone acknowledged a gifting or ability in you that you were not aware of? If so, how did that make you feel? Did you lean into that gifting to further develop it?

PRAYER REQUESTS AND CLOSE IN PRAYER